VARIOUS KINDS OF FESTIVITIES OCCUPY SOCIETY OVER HOLIDAYS

Tennis Matches and Cabaret Dinner at Germantown Cricket Club—Open-air Play to Be a Feature at Whitmarsh. Other Affairs of Interest.

The celebration of Independence Day has already begun at a number of the nearby country clubs and will continue throughout tomorrow and Monday when numerous dinner dances will be given as a fitting wind-up. The Germantown Cricket Club at Market street will give a usual coterie of tennis enthusiasts today, where the final matches of the present tournament will be played off. Monday will be the red-letter day at the club, for exciting tennis matches will be played on the tennis courts which will be filled with the small boys who are just beginning to wield the racket, the tired business man who firmly believes that this one day in the year belongs to him and last but not least the veterans of whom Mannheim boasts a goodly lot.

Then there will be luncheon served on the balcony of the main club house, which will be attractively decorated with hanging baskets of ferns and summer flowers. The guests of honor will be the members of Team A of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, who will, after luncheon, play Germantown Team A in a Halifax Cup cricket match. A platform will be erected underneath a huge chestnut tree where a band concert will be given during the afternoon. The crowning feature of the day will be the cabaret dinner in the ball room. Red, white and blue bunting and flags will be used in decoration and the tables will have flowers of the same color to carry out the color scheme. Favors appropriate to the day have been secured for the diners and the dancing will last until midnight.

Among those who will give dinners are Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lloyd, of 233 Harvey street, who will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William H. Easton, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. Burton Mustin and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clement, Jr., will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Moore. Another dinner will include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hayward Roberts, who will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Roberts, of St. Joseph, Mo., who are their house guests, and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Franke, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tucker will entertain their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tucker, of Philadelphia, who will be Captain A. W. Stahl, U. S. N., Mr. John A. Leeds, Mrs. Charles B. Pearson, Mr. Samuel K. Passmore, Mr. E. J. Moore, Mr. H. D. Hershey, Mr. Ewing Stille, Mr. H. W. Williams B. Kurtz, whose guests will include Mr. and Mrs. William M. Newhall, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Kurtz and Mr. Paul Kurtz, who has just returned from Harvard.

At the Philadelphia Cricket Club the usual weekly dinner-dance will be given, the club receiving their last day of the year, which will open with a luncheon, to be followed by the Halifax cricket match. Then there will be music and a dinner-dance and later a fireworks display. The clubhouse will be attractively decorated. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Furnum will give a dinner of 12 covers at the club tonight, and among others who have reserved tables are Mrs. Dorothy P. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Simonin, Miss Elizabeth McCuan Smith and Mr. Allen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrew Harris, Jr., and Mrs. C. R. Barton will be among those entertaining on Monday evening. The Country Club at Bala, in addition to holding its weekly dinner-dance tonight, will also have music and dancing on Monday night, and several luncheon parties will be given tomorrow.

Altogether unique will be the celebration at the Whitmarsh Country Club on Monday, for, instead of the usual display of fireworks, the house committee have provided an open-air play, for which the Davours Company, of New York, will be brought over. A French comedy, entitled "The Pee Unexpected," will be presented, the plot dealing with the trials and tribulations of I. Rogues, such as the country lawyer, down to the humblest among them, a half-witted shepherd. The sketch, which furnishes an insight into early French provincial life, promises to be most artistic. The play will be preceded by numerous dinner parties and later, after the curtain has been rung down, there will be dancing until 11:30 o'clock. A dinner-dance will be given at Whitmarsh this evening also.

The Huntingdon Valley Club will hold an informal golf tournament on Monday morning for its members, and in the evening a dinner-dance will be given. The picturesque clubhouse veranda and the trees surrounding it will be strung with vari-colored electric lights.

The Merion Cricket Club, in addition to its regular weekly dance this evening, will hold open house on Monday, the festivities beginning with a cricket match. The Merion team, under the leadership of Mr. J. R. Vetterlein, will meet the Frankford team. In the evening added interest will be given to the dinner-dance by a series of competitions in the one step, fox trot and hesitation. The committee in charge of the arrangements includes Mr. Lothrop Lee, Mr. W. R. Townsend, Mr. M. E. Reibel, Mr. E. Y. Rosenman and Mr. H. J. Lawrence, Jr.

A golf tournament will be held at the New Torresdale Golf Club on Monday morning. This will be followed by the dance at the clubhouse from 2 until 6 o'clock. Mr. Charles Hoffman has charge of the arrangements.

The Overbrook Golf Club will also hold a golf tournament for its members on Monday morning. This will be followed by the dance at the clubhouse from 2 until 6 o'clock. Mr. Charles Hoffman has charge of the arrangements.

Open house and the dance will be interesting features of the evening, which will draw many of the young people over to the clubhouse between 3 and 6 o'clock. In the evening at 8:30 elaborate fireworks celebrations will be given, following by dancing in the clubrooms and spacious porches.

The Curtis Country Club on Sprinkfield road, Media, will hold an all-sports day for girls under the direction of Mr. Thomas McCafferty, the president of the club, assisted by Mrs. McBlane, the chaperon for the girls. A large number of the employees of the Curtis Publishing Company expect to participate. Races of all sorts will be held, among which the tennis race, a race, three-legged and water-carrying race sound promising. The tennis courts will be in use throughout the day. The "All Star" baseball game at 2:30, in which the girls' team will play the boys' team, will be the most important event of the day. A people over a catcher from the ranks of the boys will be given to the girls' team as a handicap. Other amusing features will be the basketball contest and the peanut-scramp for children. Refreshments will be procurable at the clubhouse, and there will be dancing, music and fireworks during the evening.

The 21st Ward has made unusual preparations for the observance of a "safe and sane" celebration of Independence Day. At 7:15 o'clock on Monday morning there will be a parade of Sunday school children, headed by mounted police; Mr. Hiram J. Wynne, chief marshal; and these aides appointed by the various schools: Mr. William Robinson, Jr., Mr. John R. Wagner, Mr. Frank Carlisle, Mr. Frank Wagner, Mrs. George E. Ely, Dr. William Holdt, Mr. Harry Heale, Mr. Edward Harp, Mr. George Katsenbach, Mr. Louis Heibel, Mr. Horace V. MacFadyen and Mr. George Blumenau.

Each school will be preceded by a band of music. They will march in the following order: Leverington Presbyterian, Galilee Baptist, Fourth Reformed, Roxborough Baptist, Central Methodist, Grace Lutheran, Ebenezer Methodist, Epiphany Lutheran, Talmare Memorial and Bethany Lutheran. The parade will form at Lyceum and Manayunk avenues and march out Lyceum avenue to the Ridge, when the schools will turn, passing through the park to reach their picnic grounds for the day. In Manayunk, the Catholic schools will parade separately, Mount Zion Methodist will picnic in McMaster's Grove, Lower Merion, where a program of athletic sports and a concert of instrumental music will be given.

In the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks in the Roxborough Park, on Rector street, under the direction of Mr. C. A. Rudolph.

Under the auspices of the Athletic Association Lansdowne will have a company of fireworks and a celebration equal to any to be held in the county. Beginning at 10:30 there will be a baseball game between Media and the Union Athletic Association. At 1:30 the Marine Band from Philadelphia will arrive to play during the afternoon and evening. At 2:15 Mr. Fred Underhill will make an address. This will be followed by field sports in which there will be over 300 children to take part. One of the novel features will be a prize eating contest. More than 50 prizes will be given to winners. In the evening, from 7:30 to 8:30, moving pictures will be shown and will be followed by a large display of fireworks. The last place of fireworks is to be Lansdowne's new publicly owned, 13 feet in diameter. It will read, "Super Suburb, Lansdowne, the Place to Live In." The committee in charge consists of Mr. John Jarvis, Mr. Thomas Sarren, Mr. Walter C. Powell, Dr. G. Victor Janvier, Mr. William Hamshaw, Mr. Joseph A. O'Brien, Mr. Fred Underhill and Mr. James Stewart.

Miss Haines' betrothal is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haines, of Joe Helen, Somerton, to Mr. Walter Garsid Herbert.

MILADY OF FASHION IS CHARMING AT TENNIS GROUND

Dainty Gowns Are Worn by Fashionable Throngs at the Tennis and Golf Tournaments Which Have So Occupied Society Recently at the Clubs.

The perennially popular Panama hat with its tailored band seems to have been supplanted this year by every conceivable fancy in outing hats, those in vogue being the large floppy vari-colored affairs of straw, felt and cloth which, however picturesque they may appear, are not comfortable and safely worn when breezes blow as those snugly fitting ones of yesterday. True it is that these wide-brimmed garden hats seem quite in keeping with the hot linen collars and smocks and full skirts of the season. Quite a flutter was caused several days ago on the courts at Manheim by the appearance of a hunter's green linen smock which was worn over a short full skirt of wide green and white striped material and topped off by a drooping brimmed hat of coarse straw. But it suited the wearer admirably. Miss Elizabeth Wister, who was one of the interested spectators, wore over a brilliant pink silk sweater and with it a wide brimmed leghorn hat with pink roses around the crown. A debutante-to-be, Miss Agnes Brodick, who had with her her sister, Miss Elizabeth, and Miss Sarah Franklin, of Lansdowne, wore one of the new large hats of dark blue liberty straw flaring sharply at one side. Her silk sweater was of a lighter shade of blue.

Mrs. Harry C. Thayer looks extremely well in a shimmering sweater coat of green and white silk worn over a white linen frock, and a large leghorn picture hat. A sweater of white silk, worn with a sheer white frock and a drooping brimmed hat of white trimmed with white flowers is worn rather affectively by Miss Charlotte Harding Brown. Miss Agnes Clark Kenney, while on the courts, wears with the regulation white linen frock a cupped down hat of yellow liberty straw and a voluminous coat of blouses cloth to match the hat. Miss Eugenia Kelso Cassatt, while wearing a rose-colored silk sweater with a rolling collar and a girde tied in front, dons a small rose-colored silk hat.

Miss Ethel Altemus Byrd looked well at one of the recent matches in a white flannel sports suit. The skirt was made short, according to the mode of the hour, and the coat was quite loose and belted in at the waistline. A black and white sailor hat trimmed with ribbon was extremely smart. Mrs. Morris Wister was seen lately at one of the country clubs wearing a short white linen skirt and a white sweater with white stripes over which was worn an unusually smart white silk sweater. Mrs. Wister's hat was a broad white sailor, trimmed simply with blue and white feather pompons. Striking black and white pumps worn with black and white striped silk stockings completed this attractive costume.

The sweater coat of silk or its prototype in a more wood seemed to be just as much the uniform for the golf links or the tennis courts as the trig little tailleur is for shopping excursions in town. Miss Hope Seale was noticed recently wearing a smart little two-piece suit of coverlet cloth, belted at the waistline, and relieved by a collar of fine white batiste. With it she wore a small narrow brimmed sports hat of yellow and white striped hemp. Mrs. Isaac J. Schlichter, Jr., was taking a train recently wore a good-looking two-piece suit of navy blue cloth. The skirt was elaborately braided in deep garlands over each hip to simulate pockets, the design also being carried out on the short bolero jacket. The young matron's hat was a large straight-brimmed model of black straw, trimmed with several fanning black wings.

Mrs. William Jennings, of 323 North 19th street, will spend the summer in Seaside Park as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Weaver. Miss Alice Jennings, after a short stay in Seaside Park, will go to Bradley Beach for the remainder of the season.
